Moniek Schrijer

Moniek Schrijer is a contemporary jeweller from Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington. She holds a Bachelor of Applied Arts (2012) and a Post-Graduate Diploma in Jewellery and Printmaking from Whitireia New Zealand (2013). Since graduating Schrijer has developed a strong exhibition history and her work has been included in a number of significant national and international exhibitions. Most recently, her solo exhibition 'The Jewel Room' at City Gallery, Wellington (2023), 'The Debris of the Aura', Nelson Jewellery Week (2023) and 'Screensaver' at Te Uru Waitakere Contemporary (2022). Schrijer has been the recipient of numerous awards and residencies: The McCahon House Residency, Herbert Hofmann Preis (2016) and the Françoise van den Bosch (2015) artist in residence in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Her work is in the collections of Die Neue Sammlung, Munich, Germany, Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa and The Dowse Art Museum.

Schrijer's work is characterised by the skilful adaptation and alteration of materials using a variety of traditional and unconventional jewellery techniques. Her work is distinct and ingenious, weaving together originality, critical reflexivity and humour.
