Raewyn Walsh

This series of work by contemporary jeweller Raewyn Walsh, celebrates the change of the season.

“Autumn Splendour is a range of Crown Lynn dinnerware, as loved by aficionados today as it was when sold throughout the 1960s and 70s. Autumn Splendour is remembered with nostalgic and homely feelings.

These brooches and pendants seek to invoke similar feelings. Made in the home studio, wax explosions in the kitchen, and late nights in the bedroom workshop also point to those moments when art and life collide”.

Raewyn lives and works in Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland
